

CED Mentor Biography

Name: Bobby Bahram

Current Occupation: CFO and COO of TransLoc, Inc.

Career Highlights:

- Prior to joining TransLoc, Inc., for five years Bobby Bahram was RadarFind's co-founder, CFO and COO, and led the creation and growth of a venture backed healthcare IT company offering a hardware, software, and services solution to track, in real-time, medical equipment and patients in hospitals. RadarFind was acquired by TeleTracking Technologies, an international provider of patient flow solutions for the hospital industry.
- Before joining RadarFind, Mr. Bahram was Director of Business Development at MCNC's Research & Development Institute (sold to RTI International).
- Prior to working for MCNC's Research & Development Institute, Mr. Bahram was the CFO of Peracom Networks, a venture backed start-up focused on networking of home entertainment products.
- Mr. Bahram helped start and grow the IBM spin-off Home Director, a manufacturer and installer of home networking products, where he created and managed the finance group.
- Prior to Home Director, Mr. Bahram spent over four years at IBM in design and development of enterprise software and hardware products.

Areas of Expertise:

- Accounting / Finance
- Business Development
- Business Funding
- Human Resources
- Information Technology
- Legal
- Marketing
- Operations
- Sales
- Other: _____

Education:

- MBA from North Carolina State University
- B.S. in Electrical Engineering from Clemson University

Professional Affiliations / Volunteer Activities:

- Council For Entrepreneurial Development
- Recipient of the 2009 Top CFO Award in Products Category by Triangle Business Leader Media
- Certificates in Project Management from George Washington University
- A frequent speaker and advisor to economic & entrepreneurial development organizations and business schools